Your Account History

Last Article Update 19.03.2024

A lot is happening in your current account on the daily. Incoming transactions, outgoing ones. You might pay your rent by standing order or make own transfers to your savings account – and much more. That's why it's important to keep track of what you're spending your money on. With George, you can access your account history any time.

(i)

Please note

Your account history usually goes back 3 years. If you get the 7 Year Archive plugin (available in the George Store), you can extend this time period to 7 years.

How to get there

Choose your current account in your overview.

Go to "Transactions".

What's in there?

There, you can acces your account history, that consists of all your transactions for this account.

If you pay something with your debit card card, it will usually show up in the history a few days later.

You can search for an amount, a certain date or incoming and outgoing transactions.

Authorised payments will be shown in an extra row.

If you click on one transaction, George will offer you even more detailed information about it, like the location or booking reference.

There, you can also claim a transaction with just one click.
